

Brief Bio

Massoud Ayoubi

Director, Writer, and Lecturer | Kabul, Afghanistan

Massoud Ayoubi is the Director of the Afghanistan Social Workers Professional Organization (ASO) and a seasoned expert in social work, leadership, and advocacy. He has served as the former Director of the Child Protection Secretariat and the Head of Social Work and Child Welfare at the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs. He is also a United Nations-certified master trainer and a passionate advocate for social justice and equity.

With over eight years of experience, Massoud has excelled in leadership roles, human and child rights advocacy, executive management, project direction, and entrepreneurship development. He is recognized for his ability to drive meaningful change in communities.

Massoud holds a bachelor's degree in Social Work from Kabul University and has completed advanced certifications in leadership, human rights management, gender equality, social mobilization, project direction, and entrepreneurship from prestigious institutions.

His strong leadership and communication skills have been instrumental in promoting diversity, providing counseling, managing risks, and developing impactful programs.

Massoud's ultimate vision is to enhance living standards for vulnerable communities and to foster a more just and equitable world. He remains committed to leveraging his expertise and dedication to create positive and lasting change in Afghanistan and beyond.